

MORNING APPEAL

Official Paper of Ormsby County

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4

Burial of Mr. McDonald.

The funeral of the late Mr. McDonald on Sunday, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows was largely attended. E. M. Reynolds N. C. assisted by Chaplain Davis officiated at the cemetery.

Damage Suit.

Today in the Circuit Court the case of J. M. Zion vs. S. P. Co. comes up for $6,000 incurred by being put off the train while traveling on a scalp ticket which Mr. Zion claims was a genuine ticket. The attorneys for Mr. Zion are Jones and Clarke and the S. P. Company, W. E. F. Deal and J. L. Wines.

Soon Back.

On Sunday evening David Lyman a trustee who cooks in the Warden's department, took French leave. He lit out at 5:30 and Guard Nofsinger who went after him, caught him in Washoe Valley and had him back in his cell at 9:30. He was in for three years and a half, and loses eight month's credit by his break.

Furniture for suitable holiday presents in large variety and at such low prices that the goods only need be seen to prove that Geo. W. Kitzmeyer is the leader in the furniture business. Intends to push the business! From now on until after the holidays, Geo. W. Kitzmeyer will sell, not old shelfworn goods, but of the latest style, plain, but durable furniture, closer to cost than any dealer in the State.

Shults' Hay Yard

J. T. Shults of Washoe City has succeeded C. W. Calvin at Atherton's hay yard. He will sell hay and grain and stable horses at the lowest rates. He will sell none but first class hay and grain.

Notice.

I take pleasure in stating to the public that I have opened the Silver State Restaurant and will run the business under my sole supervision. Not having a partner and being untrammelled in the management of the business, I shall endeavor to merit a full share of public patronage.

IDA WINTERS.

The Weiland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome White."

ALL SORTS.

Mrs. Henry Morrison and son are back from California.

D. A. Bender and daughter Cherrie arrived from California yesterday.

Mrs. J. P. Woodbury and daughter came up on last evening's train.

Frank Boskowitz the drummer arrived on yesterday morning's train.

There was a lively rush to pay taxes yesterday. The county is no longer on a script basis.

Jim Newlands is back from the Horse Show. He went down to see the girls in the boxes.

As the APPEAL goes to press the Carson Guard succeeded in electing H. D. Thaxter Captain.

Mr. J. E. McDonald was a son-in-law of Mrs. McCue, not Mr. James as stated in Sunday's issue.

The County Commissioners yesterday renewed the APPEAL'S printing contract for another six months.

Mrs. R. M. Clarke returned from Portland and Seattle Saturday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Newton Roundtree of Portland.

Mr. Wilson of the Standard Mining Co., of Bodie, is in Carson securing men to go and work on a ditch and dam the Company is building. He wishes all the men that care to go.

Mrs. Gilbert Briggs received news yesterday from her husband of the death of his brother at Andersonville, Indiana. Mr. Briggs went there about a week ago on hearing of the illness of his brother.

Geo. J. Lamy has just started his violin class for the fall term. If you want to study that kind of all instruments under the most rapid system known, consult that popular young orchestra leader and teacher.

The horrid living pictures with all their naughtiness and audaciousness are coming this way. The APPEAL has decided not to run any advertising of these nasty shows—except at double rates. Bring on your pictures and your advertising.

The citizens of Carson will give a ball for the benefit of the acquitted strikers this evening. The boys are entirely without funds, not having enough to pay their hotel bills or their railroad fare home. Nearly all the services required have been donated and the proceeds will be turned over to the strikers.

Lady members of the San Francisco 400 are going to edit the San Francisco Examiner's Christmas edition, from managing editor down to the Water Front reporter. Mrs. Frank Pixley will act as managing editor and the scoring the Pope's Irish will get that day will be interesting. Mrs. W. V. Mills will run the telegraphic page. Telegraphic correspondents will govern themselves accordingly. Everything but fashion news will go into the waste basket.

The Strikers Trial.

Yesterday the Attorneys in the case of the U. S. Government vs. the Carlin strikers, District Attorney Jones for the prosecution closed the case. Wm. Woodburn for the defense made some caustic allusions to the Southern Pacific as being behind the prosecution, for which he was called to time by the Court on several occasions.

The jury then retired, and at 6:25 returned a verdict of not guilty. The verdict seems to meet with the general approval of the people, and the event was celebrated by the ringing of bells and the firing of anvils.

At the Range.

Cowing led the score at the range Sunday by making 47. Wilcox in the 1st class by 44. Fothergill in the 2nd class by 43. Stone in the 3rd class by 40. Billings in the 4th class by 40. Dorsey and Folsom made 37 at the 300. Wilcox made 22 at the 1000 yard and David 7.

Change of Time.

The V. & T. R. R. new time card began yesterday. The local train for Virginia will leave at 5 p. m. instead of 5:10 and the evening passenger train will leave Virginia ten minutes earlier than at present, arriving here at 6:30 and departing for Reno at 6:40.

STATE PATRONAGE.

THE EDITOR OF THE "APPEAL" HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH IT.

The editor of the APPEAL wishes to serve notice on all residents of this State that the places at the disposal of the Silver party, are mostly in the hands of the various Boards of State officers who were chosen by the people at the recent election. They are men of considerable intelligence, know what they were elected for and will not as a rule be run by outside influences.

We make this announcement because many people in various parts of the State, labor under the impression that the editor of this paper can drop his work at any minute, run over to the Capitol building, call the Board together, and tell them to appoint Mr. Snodgrass of Hops Hollow, Warden of the Penitentiary, and Mr. Snipkins of Ragtown Superintendent of the Orphans Home.

During the last two weeks we have received over twenty letters giving us these commissions.

We give a few extracts from some of these letters. One from an Eastern county reads:

I have seen two Assemblymen from my county, and they have fixed on a man named — for Warden of the Penitentiary. He is an A. N. O. 1 man and will fill the bill. If you will pull the members of your county in line we can land him a sure winner, and I will have a good place. The party should put up a good strong man this time, one that we can elect.

The closing paragraph of the above extract is about the funniest thing we ever saw in politics. In the first place the writer of the letter does not seem to know that the Legislature has nothing to do with the election of the Warden, but he is selected by a Board consisting of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State. The idea that a strongman must be put up, is also superfluous, as no matter how strong or weak, it requires but two votes to elect him.

A lady from Alpine county, California, writes the APPEAL for a place in the Orphans Home. She says:

I have never taken care of orphans but I am certain I could if I had a chance, and would be glad to work for a small salary as Matron of the Institution. I once lived in an Orphan Asylum as an inmate, and consequently know the wants of the little ones. I am unmarried and therefore have no incumbencies.

A man who writes a hand, if anything worse than we do, wants to be the Governor's Private Secretary. "provided the salary can be raised to living figures."

A lady from Lander county wants a place in the bandery of the State Printing Office, on the ground that she induced over twenty men on election day to vote the Silver ticket, who were intending to vote the Democratic ticket. If this ladies claims can be substantiated, she should have a good place somewhere.

A man from Washoe county wants the paper to endorse his claims as a guard at the State's Prison, on the ground that he has "always been accustomed to sit up nights." Whether he has practiced sitting up with a girl or watching his hen roost he don't say.

These are but sample extracts from letters that come in every mail. For the benefit of applicants for positions within the gift of the Silver party, we will state that anybody who is a citizen of the State of Nevada has a right to apply for a place and some who are not citizens, as in the case of ladies.

A man aspiring to be Warden of the Penitentiary should write to the members of the Prison Board who take office with the year. They are John E. Jones, Eugene Howell and Robert Beatty. If you want a place of lesser responsibility than Warden-ship, wait and ascertain who is to be Warden and write to him. If you wish to learn who the Board intends to select, read the Virginia Enterprise, Reno Gazette or Carson Tribune. For or of these papers will tell you, but don't question us, for we don't know.

Parties looking for the Superintendency of the Orphans Home will have to apply to Wm. Westerfield, H. C. Churing and A. C. Pratt. They have the sole say. If you want a place in the Institution and you can persuade them to tell you who they have fixed upon for the place, it will be a point gained. If they decline to tell, you will have to wait until they decide. In the meantime saw wood and keep quiet. Even if you don't saw much wood, keep quiet. Don't, however, write the Board over a letter a day, as they might weary of it in time.

To ladies who are looking for positions in the Legislature, our advice is not to try.

Few women who secure places there, get through the session without being made the subject of unkind remarks.

Be you as chaste as ice and as pure as snow you will not escape calumny.

The successful aspirant is bound to defeat several others and among those others, there is certain to be some one of evil tongue who will say spiteful things and these spiteful things gather bulk as they are rolled along from mouth to mouth.

All aspirants should bear in mind that there are not enough offices to go round and should also keep the fact in mind that the editor of the APPEAL has no more "pull" with the newly elected officers than hundreds of other good silver men, and he does not propose to poke his nose into their business, unless the use of his nasal proboscis is specially requested and the possibility of there reaching such a dead lock as to necessitate interference from this source as a very remote possibility.

A Carson Jockey Stabbed.

Homer Combs a well-known jockey of this city and now engaged at the Bay District track was stabbed at the track on Saturday afternoon by Robert Isom.

The quarrel occurred in the jockeys' room while the lads were doffing their colors, and was the outcome of a lot of reckless riding that occurred in the California Theatre handiecap.

Combs, who is an assuming and quiet white boy, was riding Lovdal. Isom was riding San Louis Rey. All the horses in the race could not run abreast and Rey and Lovdal were forced into the mud. Lovdal was nearer the path than Rey. Isom concluded that Combs had forced his mount into the mud.

After the race the jockeys went to the jockeys' room and prepared to change their clothes. Combs took a seat near the stove and was putting on his trousers when Isom addressing another jockey, said: "You white boys don't seem to want to give me a chance at this racetrack." This boy laughed at him, and Isom turned to Combs and said: "Dutch, what do you mean by forcing me all over the track?"

Combs replied: "I'll force you all over the track before I get through with you. You won a few races out here and you think you are somebody."

Isom walked away and after telling jockey Carr what had happened the latter handed him a knife.

Isom again approached Combs and with the remark, "What did you say you would do to me?" began to plunge the knife in Combs' body. Combs attempted to defend himself. After he was stabbed in the left arm he struck Isom in the face with his right hand, but before he could hit him again, Isom stabbed him again in the arm, and then making a swing plunged the knife into Combs' back inflicting an ugly wound under the heart.

Combs staggered and fell. He was carried into a rear room and a doctor called. The wound in the back is a dangerous one. At last accounts he was out of danger. Isom was arrested and booked on a charge of assault to murder.
